Born in 1979 in Upper Austria, studied Art History at the University of Vienna and received camera and editing training at the Technical University of Vienna. Since 1998 she has been working as director, writer and editor for film and TV projects, collaborating in the creation of short and feature films, documentaries as well as advertising, music and corporate videos. She started out her professional career with the local TV in Garsten (1997-98), worked with Ruth Deutschmann at the ORF for „Schöner Leben“ and „Orientierung“ from 1999 until 2002, as well as scientific staff and film tutor at the Technical University in Vienna, and assisted at the “Theater der Jugend” in Vienna.

From 2005 to 2009 she was the managing director of castle Altpernstein in Upper Austria, after which she returned to editing at Puls4 TV.

In 2009 she founded a production company and since then works as a freelance filmmaker and director, with emphasis on projects in both, children and adult education. She is part of the media collective „Traum & Wahnsinn“ and co-founder of „FAME * Filming As METHOD“.
